FEATURED WINES

2018 Sauvignon Blanc, Estate

Alexander Valley

Retail: $28 | Wine Club: $23.80 | *30/10: $19.60

The intense lemon-lime infused nose belies the rich, smooth flavors that follow. A silken entry greets with fresh citrus zest mingled with green apple, kiwi, ripe tropical fruit and subtle lychee notes. Hints of toasty oak lace through the wine as do traces of crisp acidity.

This luscious Sauvignon Blanc pairs seamlessly with goat cheese and herb stuffed chicken breasts, or pasta primavera with prawns and fresh asparagus.

2017 Zinfandel, Stone Reserve

Alexander Valley

Retail: $44 | Wine Club: $37.40 | *30/10: $30.80

Bright red and black raspberry and dark cherry aromas are judiciously laced with spices, creating a classic Alexander Valley Zinfandel nose. The smooth texture is peppered with a rich spiciness that expands across the finish, where it lingers on and on. Jammy blackberry, raspberry, plum and cherry blend with lovely spices and a trace of espresso. The frame of oak and softening tannins almost disappear among the plush flavors, yet they keep the structure of the wine intact for some additional bottle aging.

Enjoy with beef stroganoff, or a meat or vegetarian version of polenta lasagna.

2015 Cabernet Sauvignon, Warm Springs Reserve

Dry Creek Valley

Retail: $56 | Wine Club: $47.60 | *30/10: $39.20

As this enticing, deep ruby-red Cabernet flows into your stemware, dark fruit, dark spice and soft violet waft upwards. As it warms, the flavor profiles expand to warm cranberry, black tea, boysenberry and a hint of menthol. The initial bold tannins melt in your mouth, leaving a beautiful woody and tart dark berry finish, with notes of cedar and eucalyptus lingering.

Pair with French onion soup (put a splash in the broth!) topped with shredded gruyere and sourdough croutons, or a hearty beef-based Mexican pozole stew.
