Fragrant aromatics of ripe juicy berries fill the nose, while traces of black pepper appear as the wine opens. The velvety texture starts and finishes the wine as luscious flavors of blackberry, boysenberry and huckleberry flood the palate. Subtle threads of black pepper course through the wine, and a delicious dark chocolate essence emerges along with hints of toasty oak in the finish. Pair with grilled pork chops with a balsamic glaze, and for dessert enjoy a chocolate and pear brioche bread pudding.

The nose offers lively aromatics of ripe plum, mixed dark berries and coffee tones. The mouthfeel showcases the luscious and unique mix of flavors—boysenberry, blackberry, Santa Rosa plum and just a hint of blueberry laced with spicy pepper, smoky oak, vanilla and caramel. The rich berry essence fuses with mocha notes on the finish and lingers on. Pairs well with roasted eggplant parmesan or smoked pork chops served with a side of creamy scalloped potatoes.
